

Tudor Grange Primary Academy, St James

2nd April 2020

Dear Parents

Y1 now have a class blog. This is for their school work where they can upload images of their work or comment on their work. The blog can only be accessed by Y1 pupils and all pupil comments are moderated by the school so there will be a delay before comments appear on the blog.

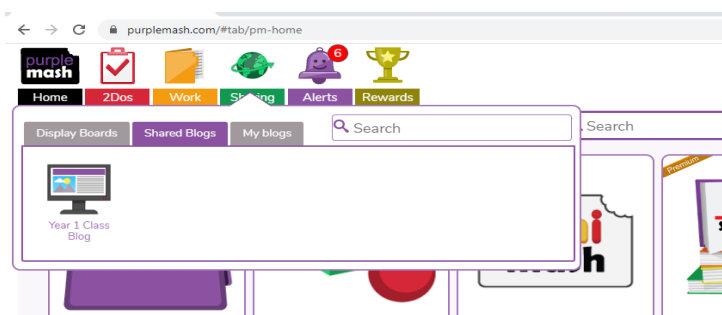

It is accessed through Purple Mash and all pupils have their own Purple Mash login.

To access the area:

- login to Purple Mash
- click on the green 'Sharing' tab (below the image of the green world)

- choose the 'Shared Blogs' tab

- click on Year 1 Blog

From here, you can read the blog and send a reply.

Myself, and the Year 1 team are looking forward to hearing from everyone in the class. We are all missing our lovely children!

Yours sincerely
